Cincinnatt, Onio, Jan. 5.—Miss Ethel
Barrymore, who opened a week's engagement at the Grand Opera House here Monday night in "Declassee," was compelled to cancel her matinee to-day and her performance to-night on account of liness. She is suffering from articular them. The trankle appeared first pelied to cancel her matines to-day and her performance to-night on account of illness. She is suffering from articular rheumatism. The trouble appeared first in Chicago several weeks ago. The facial nerves were innamed and her face slightly swellen. When she opened here Monday night the swelling had disappeared, but she was still suffering. She insisted upon going on, however, and gave what appeared to be a perfect performance.

A telephone call to the Sinton Hotel to-night brought an answer from Miss Barrymore herself. She said she was feeling much bettry and expected to resume her performances to-morpow night.
